

MATHEMATICAL PROBLEMS IN WIND POWER GENERATION

GOONG CHEN

Department of Mathematics, Texas A&M University, USA

Abstract: In this talk, the speaker will discuss a few mathematical problems in the study of wind power. Mathematical models for wind turbine operations with controls based on the Navier-Stokes equation in a rotational frame will be introduced. Preliminary analytical and numerical results for control and optimization will be presented.